Email

(COURSEBOOK page 14)

You have received an email from your English-speaking friend. Read part of the email and then write your reply.

From:	Steve
Subject:	I need some advice

I'm really in love with my girlfriend who I have been going out with for three months. The only problem is that her family has recently moved to another town and I will only get to see her during the holidays. Now, another girl in my class has said she likes me. What's your opinion? Do you think our relationship will work? Should we split up? Should I go out with this other girl? Please let me know what you think.

Write your email in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.

- 1 Greet Steve and say why you are writing. ➔

- 2 Say what you think Steve should do about his girlfriend and explain why. ➔

- 3 Say what you think Steve should do about the other girl. ➔

- 4 Say that the final decision is his. End your email in an appropriate way. ➔

Writing Task

Essay

(COURSEBOOK page 25)

In your English class you have been talking about what it is like to have brothers and sisters. Now your English teacher has asked you to write an essay for homework. Write your essay using all the notes and giving reasons for your point of view.

Being part of a large family is better than being an only child. Do you agree?

Notes

Write about:

- 1 companionship
- 2 disagreements
- 3 (your own idea)

Write your essay in 140-190 words in an appropriate style.
