The Time Machine

Hi! I'm Mikey, and I'm now the owner of a brilliant time machine. Yes, a time machine – and I'm very proud of it! Today, I'm using this invention for the first time, and I'm going back to 1984. Why 1984? Well, that's when my 5 parents were the same age as I am now, and I'm going to hang out with them today. Well, here I go!

Wow! So, this is 1984. Ah! There's my mum and dad over there. They live in the same street, and they get on really well together. They have no idea that I'm from the 10 future and that I'm their son! Ha, ha! Now we're going for a bike ride. Back home, I usually ride an expensive electric scooter, but I'm riding a really old bike today, and I'm having the time of my life!

About the text » Tick (✓) the true sentences.

In 1984, Mikey

- |                          |                                                  |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| 1 sees his parents. .... | 4 doesn't win a board game. ....                 |
| 2 rides a bike. ....     | 5 chats to his friends on Facebook . .... |
| 3 reads a comic. ....    | 6 watches a film. ....                           |

Word Check » Fill in the correct word to complete the sentence.

a comic ♦ invention ♦ owner ♦ series

- 1 Who is the ..... of the black car that's outside the house?
- 2 The mobile phone is still a new .....
- 3 This is my favourite anime ..... ; I watch it every week. It's really exciting.
- 4 When I'm feeling sad, I usually read a .....

b brilliant ♦ strange ♦ proud ♦ expensive

- 1 That computer is too ..... , and I can't buy it.
- 2 Mr Smith is very ..... of his new car.
- 3 It's ..... how you always call me when I'm eating.
- 4 Wow! This new computer is ..... !

We're all in Mum's house now, and Dad is reading something. Oh! It's a comic. I never read comics. No, I watch different anime series on my computer instead. But in 1984, children don't have their own computers. How sad! Mum and I are playing a board game, and she's beating me, which is strange because back in real time, it's usually me who wins. Hm! Or does she let me win?

Now, we are going to the park. I usually chat to my friends on Facebook at this time, but Mum and Dad are chatting to their friends in the park face-to-face! Some of the kids are talking about a new film that is on at their local cinema – Ghostbusters. That's unbelievable because back in real time, I'm going to my friend's house next week to watch the latest Ghostbusters film. Mum and Dad are on their way home now, and I'm returning to my own time. I feel sad but also happy. I miss my computer, my friends and all the things I do every day. Life is very different in 1984.

Let's go Paintballing

Read the story about an exciting day out that Sam had on his birthday.

When Sam woke up last Saturday morning, he was feeling over the moon. It wasn't just because it was his fourteenth birthday, but he was really looking forward to his trip to the Combat Paintball Park with his cousins, John and Keira, and three of his school friends.

Instead of a party this year, Sam wanted to do something different. He talked about it with his cousins, John and Keira. John suggested the paintball park. 'The three of us can play as a team against your school friends,' John said to Sam. Sam thought that was a great idea. Keira, however, wasn't so sure. 'Er..., is it safe?' she asked her brother. John just laughed, 'Don't be a baby, of course it is. Anyway, if you have any problems, Matt can help you. Isn't that right, Sam?'

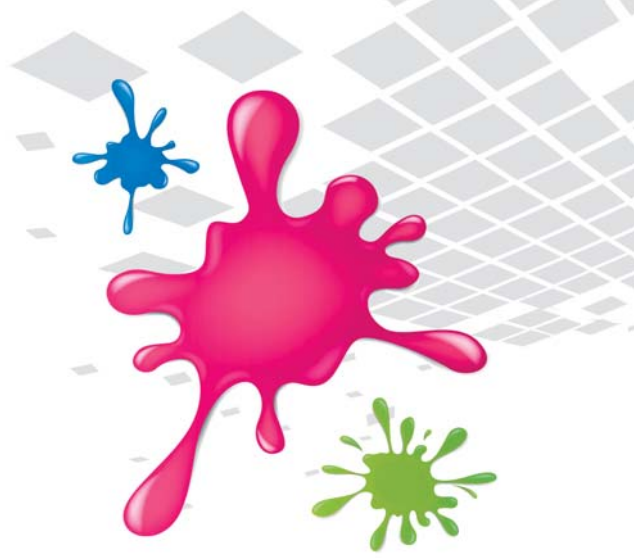

Matt was Sam's best friend, and everyone knew that he liked Keira because he used to show off in front of her, and today was no different. 'No one can beat the blue team!' he shouted as soon as they arrived at the paintball park. 'Hm!' said Sam, 'Well, let's say that the losers buy burgers for the other team!' 'OK,' answered Matt.

At the beginning of the game, the children were running around excitedly while they were trying to shoot the other team. 'Attack! Attack!' shouted Matt to his team, but he was running so fast that he fell over! As he was falling, he dropped his paintball gun by accident, which shot paint on the two boys behind him. Unfortunately for Matt, they were wearing blue and not yellow. For a moment, the six children just looked at each other in surprise. Then Sam's team laughed and laughed as they shot colourful paint all over Matt. Now Matt wasn't just red from the paint. No, he was red because Keira was laughing at him, too. 'Thanks, Matt! That was a great birthday present,' Sam said as he headed for McBurger's.

FOLLOW-UP ▶▶ In the evening, Sam's cousins and school friends gave him some birthday presents. What do you think they gave him?

About the text ► Put the sentences in the correct order.

A Fun Day Out

WARM-UP »

- ▶ What would be a perfect day out for you?
- ▶ Who would you spend it with? Why?

Do you often feel stressed and tired when it is exam time at school? Well, that's how Chris Hunter has been feeling just lately, and his friend Jasmine is a little worried about him.

- 5 Jasmine: Hi, Chris! What's up? Are you OK? You look exhausted.
- Chris: That's because I have been studying all day. In fact, I have been studying like crazy all week. I'm so fed up.
- 10 Jasmine: Well, I think you need a break. How about that new art museum? Have you been there yet? I've heard it's a very relaxing place, and relaxation is what you need at the moment.
- Chris: Yes, you're right. Things have been a bit stressful, and the art museum seems like the perfect answer.
- 15 Jasmine: Yes, and after that, what about the amusement park? That would be really cool.
- Chris: Well, I can't say I'm very keen on that idea. I know! Let's go to the mall instead. You know, wander around the shops and maybe grab a bite to eat. I know it sounds boring, but I don't want anything too energetic at the moment.
- 20 Jasmine: That's OK. I like that idea. So, the art museum and the mall in the morning. Now, would you like to go to the cinema in the afternoon?
- Chris: Good idea. I'd like to see Action Man 7.
- Jasmine: I'd rather not. I don't really like violent films. Why don't we go and see The Mad Hatter? I've already seen it a few times, but I'd like to see it again. It's hilarious.
- Chris: All right.

How many ways of making a suggestion can you find in the dialogue? .....

About the text » Answer the questions.

- 1 Why does Chris look exhausted?

Lynn was on her computer at the time, so she decided to send her a nice email to cheer her up.

The Model Village

Hi! I'm feeling a bit down.
Need some fun. Any ideas?

Hi, Judy!

Thanks for your text message. Sorry to hear that you're unhappy at the moment. I know you've been studying hard lately, so you're probably just overtired. Anyway, I've 5 come up with a brilliant idea. Why not come and stay with me next weekend? My dad won't be working then, so he can pick you up from the station.

There are a lot of things to see and do here in my town, but the best thing is the new model village which has recently
10 opened. I haven't had the chance to go there myself yet, but I've heard it's worth a visit, so we can go together. There, we'll see over 80 realistic models of world-famous landmarks such as the Sydney Opera House in Australia and the Statue of Liberty in the USA. Check it out on the 15 Internet. I'm sure it'll be great fun.

On Sunday, I'm going to introduce you to my friends, and we can spend the morning at the amusement park and have a good laugh. They've got a new ride – The Scary Dragon – which I've heard is terrifying.

20 I hope you can come! If you do, this time next week, we'll be wandering around and admiring all the details on the buildings at the model village.

Please write back soon.

Love,
Lynn

At the cinema

Three friends, Mark, Nina and Tim, take it in turns to decide where to go on Saturday evenings. Two weeks ago, Mark chose a fast food restaurant, and the week before that Tim arranged for them to go ice skating. Last Saturday, however, it was Nina's choice to see The Black Knight – a new film that was on at the Rex Cinema. She made this decision because it got an excellent review in her favourite magazine. They bought tickets for the six o'clock showing, and then they went to buy some popcorn, chocolate bars and soft drinks.

Luckily, The Black Knight wasn't a boring, romantic film. It was an exciting adventure film that was filmed in the beautiful city of Rome. David Waters, who played the main role, is an excellent actor. In fact, all the acting in it was superb. The plot was full of action, and all three friends thought the special effects were impressive.

Reading

The teachers at Greenwood School are trying to decide where to take their students on a school trip. Mrs Rogers, the history teacher, suggests the local history museum. The art teacher, Mrs Brown, doesn't think it's a good idea. 'Let's take them to the art museum instead,' she says. 'I know that some of the students are keen on art.' Mr Ford, the PE teacher, looks at Mrs Brown in surprise and says, 'Yes, but what about the other students? How about that new museum in Farley Town where they can learn all about the history of the phone, the computer, and play electronic games?' The English teacher, Mr Barton, starts to look worried. 'Some of those electronic games are very violent. Why don't we take them to Dayton Amusement Park so they can have some fun?' Now all the teachers are happy.

WAY UP is a unique series of three books which gently guides young learners of English from beginner through to pre-intermediate level. Its innovative, practical approach focuses on providing students with a supportive framework in which they can develop confidence in their receptive and productive skills.

Every unit in Book 3 is divided into the following sections:

Reading 1: stimulating level-appropriate material, designed to elicit maximum student response in the key areas of comprehension and vocabulary.

Reading 2: interesting, narrative-style texts aimed at further developing students' vocabulary.

Speaking / Listening: here students are given a variety of speaking and listening activities which aid in the development of their oral and aural skills.

Writing: step-by-step skills and oral preparation exercises as well as model writing tasks provide learners with a firm grounding in the early stages of writing.

Everyday English: topic-related contextualised vocabulary along with dialogues to enable students to use everyday English naturally and effectively.

Review: review lessons including exam-style tasks.

At the end of each lesson there is a special Enrich your English section the purpose of which is to broaden students' knowledge and enhance their language awareness.

One of the highlights of the WAY UP series is the Oral Practice and Oral Summary sections. The techniques employed in these sections are designed to help students turn passive learning into active learning. In Book 3, in addition to the comprehension questions there are also questions based on vocabulary and grammar.
